PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—Executive Director of Operations Joel C. Spangenberg is pleased to announce the assignment of Mr. Adam Boussouf as Resident Inspector at the Department of Energy’s Los Alamos National Laboratory (LANL) in New Mexico. Mr. Boussouf will join Dr. Jonathan Plaue and Mr. David Gutowski, the Board’s current Resident Inspectors at LANL, starting on May 9, 2022.

As a Resident Inspector, Mr. Boussouf will advise the Board on the overall safety conditions of defense nuclear facilities at LANL and will participate in technical reviews by the Board and its staff related to the design, construction, operation, and decommissioning of defense nuclear facilities. He will also act as the Board’s liaison with LANL management, state and local agencies, the public, and industry officials.

Mr. Boussouf joined the Board after serving for three years as a Safety System Oversight Engineer with the National Nuclear Security Administration Production Office at the Pantex Plant in Amarillo, Texas. Prior to Pantex, he worked as a Fire Protection Engineer at LANL in Los Alamos, New Mexico. Prior to LANL, he worked as an engineer for AcuTech Consulting Group, in Vienna, Virginia. In 2016, he was an instructor for fundamentals of contemporary Process Safety Management at the University of Maryland, A. James Clark School of Engineering.

Mr. Boussouf holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Fire Protection Engineering and a Master of Science degree in Fire Protection Engineering, both from the University of Maryland College Park.
